Steven Jobs, the designer of Apple Computer, was not clever when he was in school. At that time, he was not a good student and he always made troubles with his schoolmates. But he was full of new ideas.

After he left college, Steven Jobs worked as a video game designer. He worked there for only several months and then he went to India. He hoped that the trip would give him some new ideas and give him a change in life.

Steven Jobs lived on a farm in California for a year. In 1975, he began to make a new type of computer. He designed the Apple Computer with his friend. He chose the name "Apple" just because it could help him to remember an exciting summer he spent in an apple tree garden. His Apple Company made Steven Jobs become famous all over the world.
